

Expert Medical

The army established this badge in May 1966. It is worn above the left pocket for those medical personnel who pass special tests. Reserve medical personnel specifically became eligible for this badge in March 1972.